

SACRAMENTO REGION COMMUNITY FOUNDATION AWARDS

L. Stuart List Receives the Sacramento Region Community Foundation First Annual Don Poole Award; Kent Silvester, Stacey K. Brennan and Penny Brown Receive 2012 Bridge Builder Awards

February 8, 2012 —L. Stuart List, a shareholder in the firm and a member of the firm’s Estate Planning, Probate and Trust Administration Section, received the Sacramento Region Community Foundation’s First Annual Don Poole Award for significant contributions to the Community Foundation’s mission of growing philanthropy in this region. According to Ruth Blank, CEO, “the selection of Stuart List as the first Don Poole awardee was enthusiastically supported by our staff, our board and by his peers. Stuart definitely embodies the spirit of Don, through his compassion, his devotion to educating his clients about charitable giving, and his tireless mentoring of fellow attorneys.”

The Community Foundation also announced that nine local advisors received its 2012 Bridge Builder award for their roles in encouraging donors to achieve their charitable objectives through the foundation. Three of the nine honorees are members of this firm. Stacey K. Brennan, a shareholder in the firm, was awarded for the Helen Nash Scholarship Fund. Penny Brown, of counsel to the firm, was awarded for her work for the the Soroptimist International of Greater Sacramento Endowment, and Kent Silvester, a shareholder in the firm and a member of the firm’s Board of Directors, received an award for the Patty Bogle Charitable Fund and The Bogle Family Charitable Fund.