

Bruce Timm Serving Second Four-Year Term on the McGeorge Alumni Association Board of Directors

December 2012. Bruce Timm, a newly appointed shareholder in the firm's litigation and employment law practice groups, has been elected to serve on the McGeorge Alumni Association Board of Directors for a second four-year term. Mr. Timm has served on the Alumni Association Board's executive committee as Vice President of Alumni Programs, and has been particularly active in bringing McGeorge students and alumni mentors together. A former adjunct professor at McGeorge, Mr. Timm has participated in numerous Career Development Office panel discussions, judged oral arguments for the moot court team and been a regular attendee at Dine with Alumni programs.

While a student at McGeorge, Mr. Timm won the Final Four Top Oral Advocate Award, was elected to membership in the Roger J. Traynor Honor Society, was a member of the National Moot Court Competition Team and served as a teaching assistant in Appellate Advocacy.

Other McGeorge alums at the firm include Robert Swanson (1992), managing shareholder, Jeff Jones (1979), Kent Silvester (1986) and James Moore (1997), all shareholders and members of the firm's board of directors, shareholders Michael 'Tod' Fogarty (1975), Mark Gorton (1981), Stuart List (1989), Dennis Michaels (1999), Michael Kuzmich (2000), Kelley Lincoln (2002), and Stacey Brennan (2005), and associate attorneys Penny Brown (2001), Erin Riley (2002) and Bashar Ahmad (2008).
